THE PROVOST'S MESSAGE!

TRINITY: THE FULL EXPRESSION OF GOD'S LOVE (JOHN 1:1-14)

The term “Word” here is translated from the Greek word “λόγος” or “Logos”. In the context of John’s Gospel, “logos” is used to describe Jesus, indicating His pre-existence and divinity, His role in creation, and His incarnation as the expression of God’s will and communication to humanity. He is the ultimate revelation of God’s nature and purposes.

“The Word was with God” invites believers into the mystery of the Trinity, where Jesus (the Word) embodies the perfect expression of divine love and communication. It challenges and enriches the Christian understanding of God, portraying Him as a God of relationship, eternally giving and receiving love within Himself, and extending that love to creation.

Trinity conveys a sense of intimate, face-to-face relationship. It signifies more than mere accompaniment; it suggests a dynamic, living relationship. Jesus in John 10:30 said “I and the Father are one,” illustrating the concept of mutual indwelling where each person of the Trinity fully dwells in the others. This mutual indwelling showcases an unparalleled unity and intimacy. This intimate, inseparable union is explained in John 14:10-11.

He is the Creator who willingly took on human flesh to become like those he created so he could redeem those who were lost. He stepped out of eternity into time to rescue those bound by time and destined to be separated from him for all eternity. “The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.” John 1:14.

This relationship signifies a deep, complex unity characterized by intimacy, distinction, and mutual indwelling. In Hebrews the word says ‘In the beginning, Lord, you laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands. They will perish, but you remain; they will all wear out like a garment. You will roll them up like a robe; like a garment they will be changed. But you remain the same, and your years will never end.’” Hebrews 1:8-12.

Three words conclude the Trinity namely creation, redemption and sanctification. We are created by God, redeemed through the death of Christ and sanctified by the Holy Spirit. A complete person has to go through the complete cycle to inherit eternal life. My question is; are you a complete person? May God bless you.

The Very Reverend Canon Dr. Rebecca Nyegenye,
Provost.
