Lesson: THE HOLY SPIRIT COMES

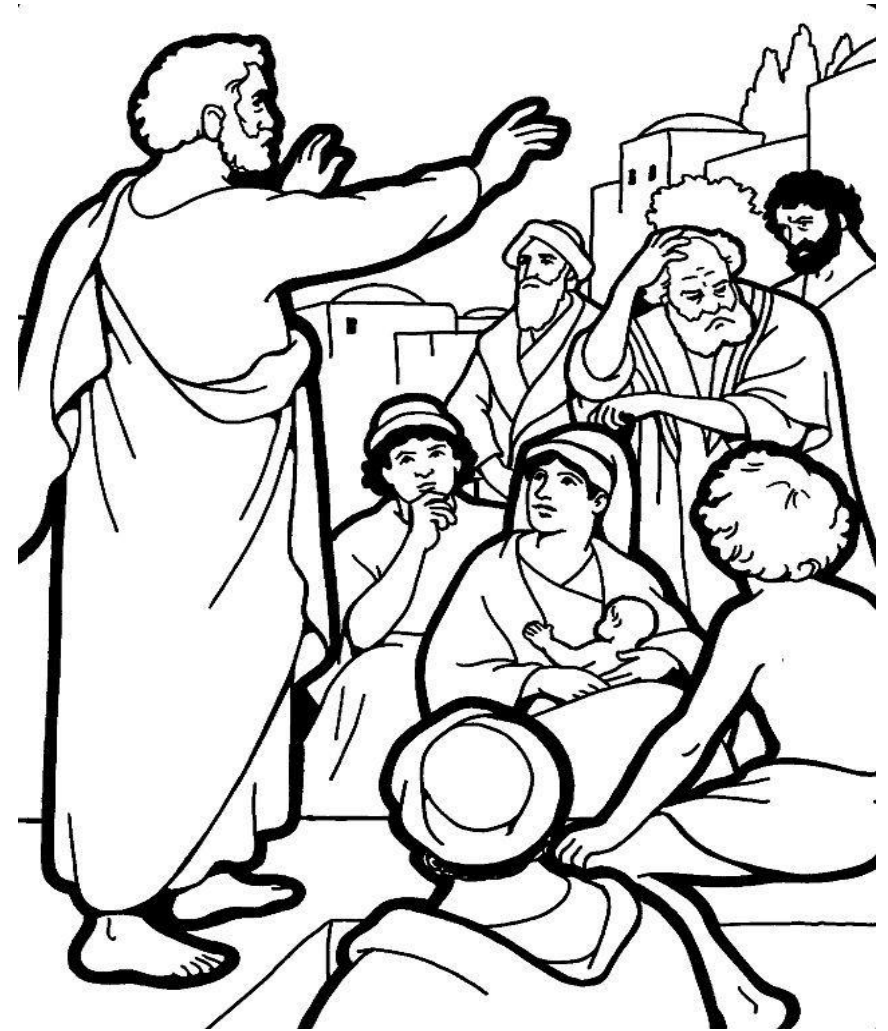

Reference: Acts 2:1-41

Point:

We need the Holy Spirit to understand and respond to the good news about Jesus and to spread the good news to others

The Holy Spirit came to the disciples as Jesus promised. The Holy Spirit gave the disciples power to tell others about Jesus. Many people became Christians that day.

Memory verse: Acts 2:36

Therefore, let all Israel be assured of this: God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ.

Lesson: THE HOLY SPIRIT COMES

Reference: Acts 2:1-41

Point: We need the Holy Spirit to understand and respond to the good news about Jesus and to spread the good news to others

Jesus had promised his apostles (disciples) the Holy Spirit and power from the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:8). He had also told them to wait in Jerusalem (Acts 1:4). When the day Jesus promised to send the Holy Spirit came, the apostles were all gathered together in one place. Suddenly, a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different languages as the Spirit enabled them. Peter and the apostles preached to a crowd that had gathered and many people became Christians that day.

Jesus had promised his disciples the Holy Spirit, and that the Holy Spirit would give them power to tell others about Him. (Acts 1:4-5, 8). As promised, the Holy Spirit came and made it possible for the gospel (good news about Jesus) to be heard in Jerusalem. All who responded by repenting and trusting in Jesus also received the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit enabled the apostles to tell the good news about Jesus, but also enabled the listeners to understand what the apostles were saying and to respond the right way to the good news about Jesus. (Acts 2:37) repenting and trusting in Jesus also received the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit enabled the apostles to tell the good news about Jesus, but also enabled the listeners to understand what the apostles were saying and to respond the right way to the good news about Jesus. (Acts 2:37)

So we need the Holy Spirit to understand and respond to the good news about Jesus. We also need the Holy Spirit to spread the good news about Jesus to others. The Holy Spirit is with everyone who repents and trusts in Jesus. The Holy Spirit helps us know who Jesus is and to trust him as our king.
