Point: Jesus died in our place taking the punishment we deserve

After Jesus had the last supper with his disciples, he was arrested and put on trial.

People lied about Jesus and they got a bad man called Barabbas released, while Jesus, who had done nothing wrong, was crucified on a cross. An innocent man died while a guilty man was released. Jesus died to pay the punishment for sin he had not committed - even for Barabbas, who was guilty. Jesus died to pay the punishment for our sin too, as long as we believe.

Memory verse: Luke 24:7

The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.

Read about it from Luke 23:13-49

After Jesus ate the Passover meal with his disciples, he went to pray in the garden of Gethsemane. There he was betrayed by Judas and arrested. He was questioned by the council of the Jewish elders, then sent to Pilate.

The Jewish religious leaders accused Jesus of stirring up trouble by speaking against the Roman rulers. Pilate could find no basis for a charge, so he sent Jesus to Herod because Jesus was a Galilean (23:4-7). Jesus refused to answer any of Herod's many questions. Then Jesus was mocked and sent back to Pilate.

Jesus was tried and found innocent, but the crowd still managed to get him condemned while a guilty man, Barabbas, was released.

Jesus was taken outside the city to a hill and nailed to a cross. They also punished two thieves that day. While on the cross, one thief mocked Jesus while the other pleaded for mercy. The thief who pleaded for mercy got it because Jesus was dying for his sin too.

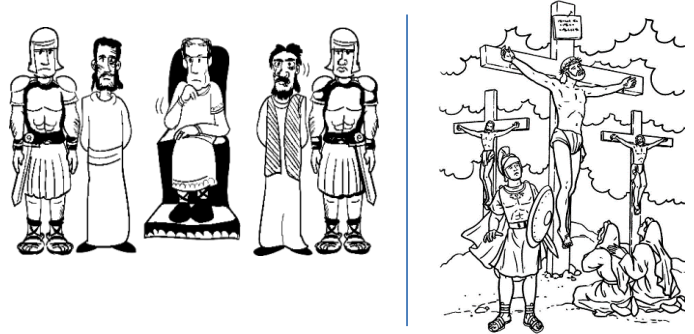

When Jesus was on the cross, it got dark in the middle of the day for 3 hours. This showed God's judgement toward the sin Jesus was carrying. And when Jesus died, the curtain in the temple tore into two. This meant, Jesus had paid the punishment for sin and people could go near God again.

Just like Barabbas and the two thieves, we too are sinners. Jesus died in our place to take the punishment we deserve. All we need to do is what the second thief did – admit that we are guilty, agree that Jesus is king and ask him for mercy.

Sin is rejecting God's rule in our lives or living as though God does not exist. Jesus died in our place taking the punishment we deserve for our sin.
