After Jesus was born, Herod - the king of the Jews, planned to kill him, but the non-Jewish Magi were led by God using a star, to Jesus, and they worshipped him.

The Magi were foreigners who were not God's people. They worshipped Jesus, while Herod, the king of the Jews, who knew about the Messiah - God's promised king, and should have led his people to worship Jesus, instead planned to kill him.

The right response to Jesus is to worship him.

First Read the full passage from Matthew 2:1-12

After Jesus was born, Herod - the king of the Jews, planned to kill him, but the non-Jewish Magi were led by God, using a star, to Jesus and they worshipped him.

Jesus, the Messiah/ the Christ/ God's promised king, had finally arrived (been born)!! This should have been good news for God's people - the Jews! This was a promised and long awaited king! The Saviour; the one who would rule forever on David's throne!

You would think all Jews would be happy and celebrate! You would expect their king to lead the people in this celebration and worship of the Christ/ the Messiah! But Herod, the Jewish king at the time, planned to kill this child!

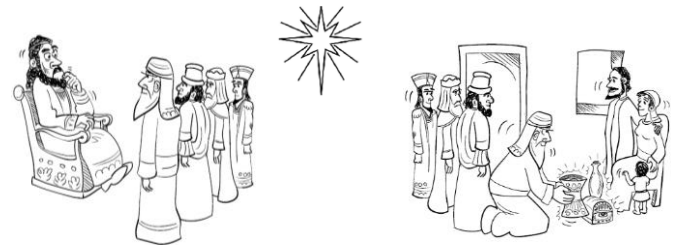

On the other hand, we have the Magi. These were non-Jews; they were star gazers from a land far away in the East. Foreigners, they were not God's people. These are the ones who instead ended up worshipping the Messiah and giving him gifts! Jesus came for all people, including outsiders! Jesus was born to rule over everyone.

When the Magi asked Herod about the baby, they asked him about the "king of the Jews". But when Herod talked to the priests and teachers of the law, he asked them about "the Messiah/the Christ/ God's promised king". So Herod knew about the Messiah, but when he suspected that this Messiah had arrived, he planned to kill him instead of worshipping him.

Jesus was born to rule over everyone. Some people hate him, but we must worship him. It's not enough to know who Jesus is; (Herod knew who Jesus is but did not worship him) we must worship him as king. Everyone is under his rule; insiders and outsiders. Jews and foreigners, those who believe in him and those who don't, those who hate him and those who love him, the rich and the poor, the young and the old. One day Jesus is going to come back to earth and everyone will recognize Him as king. The right response to Jesus, the Christmas baby, is to worship him as king.

Worshipping Jesus as our king is when we show him our love and respect because we believe he deserves it. Will you worship him?
