Lesson: The King is born

Reference: Luke 2:1-20

Point: Jesus Christ came into the worlds as a normal baby to rescue all people

Joseph traveled with Mary to Bethlehem, in Judea, the home town of David. They travelled there because everyone had to go to their home town to be counted. While there, Mary gave birth to the baby, Jesus. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger because they couldn't find a place to stay. The town was full.

Jesus' birth was announced by angels to shepherds. They were told to go and meet the one who had come to rescue the world. Jesus Christ came as a normal baby to rescue normal people; that includes you and me. And that's why we remember him coming to earth as we celebrate Christmas. Merry Christmas to you and have a happy New year.

Jesus' birth was announced by angels to shepherds. They were told to go and meet the one who had come to rescue the world. Jesus Christ came as a normal baby to rescue normal people; that includes you and me.

The birth of Jesus was contrary to what you would expect of a king. The baby's first bed was a feeding trough for animals, his first visitors were shepherds - who were despised in society, and his parents were poor because they could only put the baby in strips of cloths. He was born far away from luxury and comfort with despised shepherds as the first visitors. Most of us would not compare the conditions of our birth to Jesus' birth. However, the shepherds being the first to receive the news of the savior's birth was God's gift to them. Jesus had come into the world as a normal baby to rescue normal people, including ordinary despised shepherds.

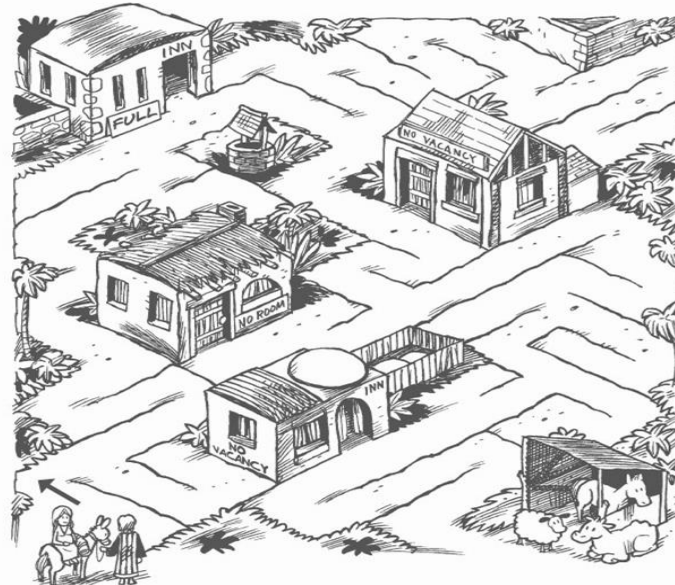

Jesus' birth is also the fulfillment of the message of hope that God sent his people through prophet Isaiah. The King, the Saviour, the Redeemer had been born and it was good news for God's people. Jesus Christ came into the worlds as a normal baby to rescue all people; the rich, the poor, the sick, the healthy, kings and commoners, men, women, children, the young and the old. God sent His Son into the world to save everyone who would believe in Him, from eternal punishment, and instead give them eternal life. This was and is Good News for all people. And that's why we remember him coming to earth as we celebrate Christmas. Merry Christmas to you and have a happy New year.

Think: Can you explain why Christmas is good news?
