Lesson: PHILIP AND THE ETHIOPIAN

Reference: Acts 8:1-8, 26-40

Point: The good news about Jesus causes people to repent and trust Jesus

Memory verse: Acts 2:21

Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

The Holy Spirit led Philip to the Ethiopian.
Using God's word, Philip helped explain the good news about Jesus to the Ethiopian. The Ethiopian believed the good news about Jesus and repented. He was baptised to show that he trusts Jesus. So the good news was going to spread to Africa.

In our last lesson, we left off when Stephen had been killed for telling the truth about Jesus. That day, the new Christians started being mistreated. This led them to run away from Jerusalem to Judea and Samaria. Those who run away spread the good news (gospel) where they went. So the gospel moved from Jerusalem, to Judea and Samaria.

One of the Christians who went to Samaria is Philip.

The Holy Spirit brought Philip and an important man from Ethiopia together. Philip explained the good news about Jesus to the man from Ethiopia using God's word; he started with what the man was reading. The man from Ethiopia believed what Philip told him, repented and decided to trust Jesus. He showed his decision to believe, repent and trust Jesus by being baptised. So he became a Christian.

Philip and the man from Ethiopia were brought together so that the man from Ethiopia could hear the good news about Jesus and become a Christian.

This is also how most people become Christians; they hear the good news about Jesus being taught and explained from the Bible, and they believe, repent and trust Jesus. Of course the Holy Spirit helps with this process. So the good news about Jesus causes people to repent and trust Jesus.

Think: Have you believed, repented, and decided to trust Jesus?
